KRISTIN LUCAS

Born in 1968, Davenport, Iowa

Kristin Lucas investigates the physical and psychological effects of an accumulation of rapid spread, flash-in-the-pan technology, and the impact of the digital medium on perceptions of time and space. Her video, performance, installation and internet works are distributed by EAI and Postmasters in New York. Lucas received her BFA from The Cooper Union in 1994 and her MFA from Stanford University in 2006.
