DON'T FLEE THE ART MARKET!

organized by Paulina Bebecka opening reception Friday, December 11th, 2009 6 – 10pm with DJ Ivan Sunshine

Come one, come all,
from Postmasters' get to roll under the green tree in the paper of color;
to see the sheen
of a smile so bold
once it stumbles and falls from many joys
art brings to girls and boys

Postmasters Gallery is transforming into an art market to cater to your love for the arts and your gift shopping needs. We will feature works, big and small made by very bright young artists. Whatever your desire for a perfect gift, we will have it: you want a piece of hair with your collage? We got it. You want a dog's mouth? We got it. You want a treasure map? We got it. You want a coyote tail? A breast mountain? A paper lion coming out of a paper captain's beard? A set of wooden blocks? Maybe even a painting? We got it all for every pocket.
